

BURNLEY 2018

Heritage Open Days

Woodland
Festival
Sunday 9th
Sept

Come along to events in Burnley as part of the nation's big FREE CELEBRATION of architecture, history and culture.

The 2018 Heritage Open Days are supported by Burnley Council and the support and active participation of all the venues featured here. Many thanks to all these organisations.

The days are a great opportunity to discover our borough's hidden secrets and many interesting features.

All are welcome at every event.

Entrance to everything is free on these days – even where venues normally charge. You may need to pay charges at car parks near some venues, including Towneley. Please check when you arrive.

There is plenty going on.

Friday 7th–Sunday 9th September

Habergham All Saints Church

638 Padiham Road, Burnley, BB12 6LG
Designed by Weightman and Hadfield of Sheffield, the pioneers of Gothic Revival, the church was completed in the autumn of 1849 on land gifted by the Kay-Shuttleworth family of Gawthorpe Hall. Learn a little of its history incorporating an optional guided tour of the graveyard.

Saturday 8th September

Open 1–4pm

Gawthorpe Hall

Padiham, Burnley, BB12 8UA
(Satnav – BB12 8SD)

Enjoy a free visit to Burnley's 'little Downton'. Gawthorpe Hall is a Jacobean house, nestled in the shadow of Pendle Hill, home of the Shuttleworth family for over 400 years. See the original plaster ceilings, decorative panelling and luxuriant Victorian rooms showing off furniture, ceramics and portraits. Use the spiral staircase to visit the Victorian kitchen (not usually open) to see what the housekeeper is making.

Saturday 8th September

noon–5pm (last entry 4.30pm)

Towneley Hall

Towneley Park, Burnley, BB11 3RQ

The 'jewel in Burnley's crown': a fascinating building, with period rooms covering several centuries of life at the hall.

See the hidden spaces and learn about the history of Towneley Hall by joining in a tour. Entrance to the hall is free – but please note that car parking charges apply.

Friday 7th September

Saturday 8th September

Sunday 9th September

Tours from noon-5pm. To book a place on a tour call 01282 477130 or email kdarwen@burnley.gov.uk

St John's Church, Cliviger

Holme in Cliviger, Burnley Road, BB10 4SU

A guided tour of this 18th Century church and its interesting graveyard. Several notable Burnley people are buried here, including General Scarlett who led the charge of the Heavy Brigade at Balaclava and Lady O'Hagan, the last resident of Towneley Hall. In the church gallery is a Royal Coat of Arms. St John's is the only church in Burnley to have one.

A fund raising family walk- Scarlett's Stride- is happening earlier that same day. Refreshments and lunch in Church House will be available!

Saturday 8th September

11am

For more details call 01282 429740 or email ruthpickles@gmail.com

Weavers' Triangle Visitor Centre

85 Manchester Road, Burnley, BB11 1JZ

Saturday 8th, Sunday 9th September and 15th, 16th September 2–4pm

Look around the former wharfmaster's house and canal toll office. Displays about Burnley's textile industry, its workers, and the Leeds and Liverpool Canal.

Woodland Festival Sunday 9th September noon-4pm

Towneley Park, Burnley, BB11 3RQ

Sunday afternoon in one of Lancashire's most marvellous parks – a great way to finish the Heritage Open Days weekend.

Watch the woodcarvers and visit the craft and exhibition stalls, and local producers' market.

Inside the hall, costumed guides will show you around some of the secret places and the local history museum will give you a glimpse of times gone by. Take time to visit our marvellous tea room.
