Newsagents, 131-133 Parliament Street, Burnley.

Peter Henderson reported on an application received for determination under Section 17 of the Licensing Act 2003 for Parliament Street Newsagents, 131-133 Parliament Street, Burnley.

Gill Sherratt representative for the applicant, and Mr Imran Khan attended the meeting and presented their case.

Councillor Jeff Sumner, attended the meeting and presented the case on behalf of the residents.

Members asked questions regarding the application.

DECISION The decision of the Committee was to grant the licence.

REASON The Committee granted the license as requested in the application.

The Committee have grave concerns with regard to the operating hours of 7.00am to 10.00pm and sale of alcohol between these hours. However, there is no evidence to support a reduction in the operating hours.

The Committee would like to thank the residents for their concerns which they have taken seriously. If the residents become aware of any issues or problems, please be advised that there is a review procedure which Mr Henderson, Licensing Manager for Burnley Council could explain.
